1. Take a right as you leave the hotel main entrance, right again following the road overlooking our vineyard on your left.
2. Follow Stammers Lane as it bends around the front of the hotel, keeping our walled kitchen garden on your right, continue down this road towards The Kennels.
3. Follow this road until it becomes a stone track after Stammers Cottage on your left, go up the track towards the cross roads, seeing the water butts on your right.
4. At the crossroads, turn left and go along the side of the field and down into a grassed glade with wonderful Douglas Fir trees on your right.

5. Up the hill and bear left up through the wood on the footpath to the top of the hill. Take an immediate right and then swift left across the field into to the wood the other side.
6. In the wood after 20 metres take the track left to the edge of Great down field and go through the stock gate.
7. Head down this wonderful grass field with 180° views of the coast. Through the stock gates half way down the field towards the tree lined footpath at the bottom.
8. Take a left along the side of the field, perhaps stop at the bench on your right.
9. Down the track through the Kissing gate and up the little hill. Left at the top and over the stile. Head at an angle to the footpath post standing on its own by the wood and then down the hill and up the other side, keeping close to the fence line.

10. At the top is a metal gate and stile. Over the stile and take immediate left on the stone track.
11. Carry on under the electric cables and through the wood, the track become tarmac and take the right turn down the hill with Bathos cottage on you left.
12. Down the hill, out of the wood with the magnificent cedar trees in the field on your left.
13. At the crossroads go up the hill to the white railings, you will see the vine yard and the Hotel on your left, take a left at the railings back to the Hotel along the lane.
14. Take off your wellies and join us in the bar for a foragers fizz.
