Treatments & Wellbeing

With five treatment rooms, a sauna, steam room, nail room and relaxation room, THE PIG-in the Cotswolds' Fieldhouse is a first for THE PIGs. Another first is using Tribe517 for all bespoke treatments which are carefully designed by THE PIGs' therapists. Tribe517 is a family-run, natural skincare brand that handcrafts its products in beautiful south Wales countryside, not a million miles from THE PIG-in the Cotswolds.

Tribe517 shares THE PIGs' ethos of using homegrown and ethically sourced botanical ingredients that help care for the planet as well as mind and body. Just like THE PIGs, Tribe517 are passionate about the provenance of their ingredients and are committed to getting the million details right: recycling and using up everything they can, and crafting in small batches to ensure the best quality.

Spa Operations Manager, Harpreet Ghatora, when asked why she chose Tribe517 said, "They're big champions of authenticity and taking everything back to basics when it comes to looking after your face and body, to create personalised wellness journeys for every single guest. That's a tribe I can get on board with!"

Inside Fieldhouse the space is warm, welcoming and very soothing. The five treatment rooms are ideal for guests and visitors to unwind with perfectly curated treatments, such as: Luminance Facial; Classic Sculpt, Prescriptive Facial; Upper Body Unwind; Bespoke Massage; Hot Stone Massage and Mum to Be.

Pre and post-treatment unwind in the sauna, steam room or the relaxation area where bucolic views of Cotswold countryside can be absorbed. Outside, take a dip in the heated hydrotherapy plunge pool for ultimate wellness.

Notes to Editors

THE PIG group is a personal collection of small lifestyle restaurants with rooms where the focus is on authenticity and informality of design, food and service. There are currently nine PIG hotels and one PIG pub; THE PIG, THE PIG-near Bath, THE PIG-on the beach; THE PIG-at Combe, THE PIG-in the wall, THE PIG-at Bridge Place, THE PIG-at Harlyn Bay, THE PIG-in the South Downs and THE PIG-in the Cotswolds. With an obsessive commitment to home grown and local produce, THE PIG celebrates the seasons and uses only the best, freshest and most authentic foods and ingredients. It is all about the kitchen gardens, they are the beating heart of the operation. Everything is driven by the kitchen gardener/forager and chef. They grow and source the food and the chef then creates the menu; uncomplicated and simple kitchen garden food, true to the micro seasons with the emphasis squarely on fresh, clean flavours. What cannot be grown in THE PIG's kitchen garden is sourced within a 25-mile radius of each hotel. There are no 'cookie-cutter roll-outs'; each hotel has its own personality and sense of self. Every property comes with laid-back warm service and a genuine commitment to environmental and social responsibility. THE PIG hotels aim to deliver an outstanding experience for every guest; a 'wow' moment that surprises and delights for a price that won't break the bank. Home grown in every way – breaking the mould of designed hotels by working with what it has and recognising what is good about that. Designed in the style that has become THE PIG's signature, each hotel has a garden restaurant and bedrooms with a touch of luxury and bags of homely charm plus Fieldhouse, Potting Shed or Shepherd's Hut massage treatment rooms in or near the kitchen gardens.

The Village Pub is a first for THE PIG group – a Grade II listed, 19th century classic British pub rooted in the heart of Barnsley, just four miles from the market town of Cirencester, and in perfect striking distance of Bibury, Burford and Bourton-on-the-water. The traditional Cotswold-stone building started life as 3 cottages which were converted in the early 18th century into The Greyhound Inn. The first registered owner was Wenman Aubrey Wykeham-Musgrave of Thame Park and Barnsley Park, until ownership passed to the Cirencester Brewery on 6th September 1935. In the 1920s, the pub changed its name to The Village Inn and, in 1952, it became Grade II listed. Around half a century later, The Village Inn swapped "inn" for "pub", and after a brief 2-year stint as The Boot, it reopened in the summer of 2024 as The Village Pub – where the focus is on the humble list of proper pub food and traditional bar snacks on the menu, and local gravity fed ales and a serious wine list behind the bar. The Village Pub is quite different from what you're used to seeing across THE PIGs, with its oak-beamed ceilings, large roaring fireplaces and 6 comfortable and stylish bedrooms tucked away in the eaves. While you won't find a Kitchen Garden or Potting Shed treatment rooms at The Village Pub, you can be sure of the same reliable and honest commitment from THE PIG group in using the best quality local produce, and delivering a laid-back, warm and welcoming experience. The Village Pub aims to be the beating heart of the local community, where you will always see friendly, regular faces gathered at the bar and where you will always receive a warm welcome from the Pub Landlord Luis, every day of the week.
